Brought Pressure on the Porte. Great Britain has successfully brought pressure to bear on the Porte for the rerelief of the presecuted Armenians, according to statements in a letter written by Foreign Secretary Lansdowne to the Anglo-Armenian Association. The let-ter says that Sir Nicholas O'Conor, the ter says that Sir Nicholas O'Conor, the British ambassador at Constantinople, in a long interview with the grand vizier, Ferid Pacha, on June 14 pointed out to that official the responsibility of the Porte should the reports of Kurdish outrages prove true. The ambassador called the attention of the Grand Vizier to the design which had been Jaccredited to the Turkish authorities of driving the Armenians from the mountain homes to menians from the mountain homes to the plains, and urged that orders should be sent to the Vali of Bith's that refugees be allowed to return to their homes and be given protection from the Kurds The Grand Vizier acquiesced in the wishes of Sir Nicholas O'Conor, and telegraphed orders to that effect in the presence of the Ambassador. The British vice con-sel at Bitlis was notified of the Grand Vizier's action and instructed to report its effect. Lord Lansdowne said that the Porte has also granted permission for a British officer to accompany any troops engaged in expeditions against the in-

Tragedy of Reconstruction Days. A tragedy of the reconstruction period has a sequel in the arrest at Newport News yesterday afternoon of Washington Watts, a negro, who says that he is 80 years old. About 30 years ago Watts 80 years old. About 30 years ago Watts was employed as a watchman on the farm of John Thomas, the son of J. T. Thomas, of Hampton. Mr. Thomas suspected Watts of stealing from him and accused him of it one day. An altercation followed, during which Watts shot down the farmer. Watts was captured and tried on the charge of larceny and murder. On the night of June 9, 1877, about eleven months after his imprisonment, Watts made his escape, and nothing had been heard from him since until about one month ago, when Sergeant Clay, of Hampton, heard that he was living at Newport News. After working up the case Sergeant Clay went to the home of Watts's daughter yesterday afterhome of Watts's daughter yesterday after-noon and placed Watts under arrest. He confessed his guilt, admitting that he was the negro wanted. He was lodged in jail, and will be held for trial in September. He is very feeble.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed en-tirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in onethird the time required by the old treat-ment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It a'so allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. THE REAL TEST of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thor-ough Trial. There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of e."
It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.
